

MSHS After School Activities Program Term 4 (Apr. 13, 2026 - Jun. 5, 2026)

ASA name	Teacher	Day	Time	Location	Age Group	Description of the activity
TedEx(20)	Kyle Mullin Jeff Woodford	Monday	13:00 - 13:25	Auditorium	G6-12	TEDx @ CISB is your opportunity to shine on stage! Develop speech writing, research, and presentation skills while gaining confidence and mastering oratory techniques. Captivate the TEDx audience as you share ideas worth spreading.
Chinese Battle of the books (Only for Chinese Language and Literature's Students)(10)	Kate Wu Kelly Li Lily Li	Monday	13:00 - 13:30	E317	G9-12	Welcome to Chinese Battle of the Books! This ASA is specifically designed to prepare you for the upcoming international school reading competition. Here, we will focus intensely on the official book list for the event. Our goal is not just reading, but targeted reading—understanding key details, themes, and characters that will help you succeed in the challenging quiz-bowl format of the competition. Get ready to dive deep into these fantastic stories, discuss them with your teammates, and sharpen your recall skills. Your dedication will help our school put forward a strong team ready to showcase their knowledge and love for literature. Let's get started on this exciting reading journey together!
DP ART COLLECTIVE(8)	Rydah Parry	Monday	15:40 - 16:40	W416	G10-G11	Join Ms. Rydah and fellow artists in our ASA—DP Art Collective—a welcoming space for current and future DP Visual Arts students to bring your own ideas and create together. Whether you're starting a new piece or finishing one, enjoy collaborative inspiration, guidance, and studio time to develop artworks of your choice.
Roots and Shoots(20)	Ghazala Sajid	Tuesday	15:40 - 16:40	E419	G6-12	"Roots and Shoots" is an engaging after-school program designed to inspire young people to take action for the environment, animals, and their communities. Founded by Dr. Jane Goodall, the program encourages students to explore their passions and initiate projects that create positive change. "Roots and Shoots" connects students with peers worldwide, promoting a sense of global citizenship and awareness of shared environmental issues.
Chinese Board Game(10)	Mary wang Jessie Chen	Wednesday	15:40 - 16:40	E320	G6-10	If you would like to making new friends through a relax way after Wednesday lunch, if you would like to learning Chinese Culture through an easy way, if you would like to grasp an outstanding social skills in the future, then, come to E320. Kinds of different Chinese board games and 2 well - experiences teacher are waiting for you.
Model UN(30)	Emma Engebretson Simon Rangiwahia Jeff Woodford	Thursday	Lunch and after school	E121	G6-12	Model United Nations (MUN) is an academic simulation of the United Nations where students role-play as diplomats to discuss and resolve global issues. Participants research a specific country's policies, debate those issues in committees, and work towards resolutions. MUN fosters skills in public speaking, negotiation, critical thinking, and teamwork.
Personality Development and Public Speaking(8)	Arundhati Sharma	Thursday	15:40 - 16:40	E119	G10-G12	Soft skills such as self presentation, confidence, body language, public speaking, presentation delivery etc. are critical in the work environment. Learning to overcome anxiety related with these aspects and developing confidence will be the focus of this ASA. The ASA will be run based on students' immediate needs.