

No.	Day	Activity	Teacher(s)	Class	Grade	Description
1	Mon	Chemistry Club (UK Chemistry Olympiad prep)	Edison Villabona	E417	G6–G12	Unlock your scientific potential in the Chemistry Club—the ultimate launching pad for the UK Chemistry Olympiad! Tailored for ambitious IB chemists, this ASA goes beyond standard coursework to challenge your problem-solving and critical-thinking skills. Each week, you'll dive into fascinating, real-world chemical puzzles and tackle advanced logic-based problems that push your understanding to a competitive level.
2	Mon	Drawing and Watercolour Painting	Rebecca Morse	E201		Love to draw, paint, or get creative? Come join the Drawing & Watercolor painting Club! Whether you're already an experienced artist or simply want to try something new, this is a relaxed space to experiment, develop your skills, and create something you're proud of. We'll explore drawing techniques, watercolor painting, different styles, and creative projects — with plenty of freedom to follow your own ideas. No experience necessary, just bring your creativity and a willingness to have fun!
3	Mon	DP Art Collective	Rydah Parry	W414		Join Ms. Rydah for a dedicated DP Visual Arts after school activity – a welcoming creative space for current and future DP Visual Arts students! Bring your own ideas and use the creative space to enjoy collaborative inspiration, guidance, and studio time to work on your DP artworks!
4	Mon	Study Smarter Lab	Dina Salem	W210		How Your Brain Learns, and How to Make It Work for You
5	Mon	Comic Book Creation Club	Joe Sechovec	E122		Unleash your inner storyteller and dive into the ultimate universe of graphic novels, manga, and classic comics! Whether you want to analyze iconic heroes, sketch your own epic characters, or collaborate on custom comic series, this is your space to create without limits. Join a passionate crew of fellow artists and writers, bring your wildest ideas to life, and show the world the power of visual storytelling!
6	Mon, Thu	StageCats	Ye Na Wang; Daphne Hinault; Franklin Gutierrez	E214		StageCats is back! Students will thrive through the experience of the theatre and the deep exploration of drama. They will be part of a big Musical production that will end up with three shows at the end of the process. The Musical Production will be performed to all CISB community and be opened to other audiences. We are looking for 30 performers, 15 creative team leaders, and around 30 production crew members to build an amazing production. Program Schedule for first season: •Days: Mondays and Thursdays •Time: 3:45 PM – 4:45 PM •Where: Dance Studio •Dates: August 31 to March 13 (Three Seasons) •Open to: Middle and High School Students •Capacity: 30 Performers (Cast) + 10 creative team leaders How to Join by Role: Performers (Cast) •Role: Actors, dancers, and singers. •Goal: Develop your skills and perform in a great show for our community. •When to Join: First Season. •Requisite to join: Be passionate and in love for the performing arts. •Audition: October (date to be published soon) Note: The audition is required to decide the cast but not as a requisite to join the group.
7	Tue	Chinese Debate	Bling Liu	E316		In today's global education landscape, debate and critical thinking skills are among the most competitive and valuable abilities for students. This club will focus on developing debate skills, organizing internal debate competitions, and preparing students for external events. Most importantly, we will select participants to represent the school at the Zong Heng Cup International School Mandarin Debate Tournament. If you're interested in Chinese debate, join us to experience the power of critical thinking and learn to embrace its challenges!
8	Tue	Chinese Calligraphy and Painting	Kaiwen Fei	W417		Discover the beauty of traditional Chinese art through Chinese Calligraphy and Painting! In this hands-on ASA, students will learn brush techniques, explore expressive ink painting, and practice the art of Chinese calligraphy. You will experiment with lines, shapes, composition, balance, and the expressive qualities of ink while creating your own artworks. Whether you are completely new to Chinese art or already have some experience, you will develop your artistic skills, creativity, patience, and confidence. You will also explore the cultural meaning behind these traditional art forms and have opportunities to share and display your work. Come create, experiment, and discover your own artistic style through the brush!
9	Tue, Thu	Ping-Pong Club	Charles Wu, Saira Umair	E319		Ping-pong ASA is a chance for anyone who want to play ping-pong. If you play well you can match yourself with an opponent at your level to compete with and learn from each other. If you do not play well coaches will show you step by step from Holding the paddler, Serving the ball ,Making a ball Relay, Smashing the balls. There are twice a week for practice. It is on Tuesday and Thursday after school from 3:35–4:35, players needed to change sport clothes and then come to ping-pong course and practice. There are two major competitions outside CISB, one is ACAMIS , one is ISAC. There will be an in-school ping-pong tournament and some invitation competition between schools Come and join ping-pong ASA
10	Wed	Model United Nations	Tilda Qian; Harrison Nti–Applah ; Jeffrey Woodford; Daisy Guevara; Simon Ranglwahla	E202		Ever dreamed of stepping onto the world stage? Model United Nations is your chance to do just that—right from your school campus. MUN is an academic simulation where you step into the shoes of a diplomat representing a country. You'll debate real-world issues, from climate change to human rights, alongside students from around the globe. Sign up today and embark on an unforgettable journey of growth, friendship, and discovery. The world is waiting for your ideas!
11	Wed	French Club (DEL F certificate)	Daphne Hinault	E321		French Club — DEL F Preparation Already studying French and want to take your skills further? Join our French Club to practise speaking, listening, reading and writing, while discovering French and Francophone culture. The club can also help students prepare for the DEL F, an internationally recognised French qualification awarded by the French Ministry of Education, with levels from A1 (beginner) to B2 (upper–intermediate). Improve your French • Build confidence • Prepare for DEL F • Have fun!
12	Wed	Physics Club	Michael Feeney	E418		A club to prepare for the American Physics Bowl competition, we will be learning additional content outside the curriculum and practicing past physics bowl exam questions to enter the competition. If successful students will be awarded Gold, Silver or Bronze physics bowl certificates which are recognized by universities during applications for physics and stem degrees.
13	Thu	TEDx	Arundhati Sharmis; Daniel Boudreau; Richard Bartlett	E119		TEDx ASA brings students together to plan and produce our school's TEDx Youth event and share "ideas worth spreading." Students can audition to become speakers or contribute as MCs, designers, marketers, photographers, event organizers, technical crew, and more. Join us to explore great ideas, build confidence, develop new skills, and help create an exciting TEDx event!
14	Thu	Business Competition Club	Stephen Yu	E117		Interested in business, investing, or starting your own company? Join us to develop real-world skills through business challenges, investment simulations, entrepreneurial projects, and international competitions. Work with a team, build and pitch your ideas, and gain valuable experience for university and beyond—no previous business experience required!
15	Thu	Chinese Speaking Club	Mary Wang	E320		students can come to communicate in Chinese , they can learn Chinese story and songs, they can use basic vocabulary to create dialogues and short story. students who want to improve speaking Chinese are welcome to join.
16	Thu	Photography	Paul Johnson	E304		"Unleash your visual storytelling and see the world through a new lens! In the Photography ASA, you won't just learn how to operate a digital camera—you'll become the official storytellers of our school community. Throughout the term, you will master technical photography skills, capture vibrant school events, and document daily campus life. The journey culminates in student-led leadership as you organise a school-wide Open Photography Exhibition & Competition. Step behind the lens, build a stunning creative portfolio, and showcase your unique vision to the world!"
17	Thu	Music – Ensemble	Karen Barros–Vega	W421		Our music ensemble is where you get to make something bigger than yourself, playing alongside others and hearing your part become part of a whole. Whether you are just starting out or have been playing for years, there is a place for you here, and every instrument adds something we would miss without it. Come along and have some tuneful fun!